

Human Resources NCO became Hood Hero

By Michael M. Novogradac, Operational Test Command Public Affairs

Staff Sgt. Shemieka Evans-Mundle, a Human Resources NCO in the Personnel Directorate at the U.S. Army Operational Test Command (USAOTC), became a Hood Hero, flanked by Maj. Gen. J.T. Thomson (left), III Corps and Fort Hood deputy commander, and Command Sgt. Major Maurice Jackson, III Corps Command Sergeant Major (rear).

Thomson presented Evans-Mundle with two Hood Hero awards during the “Hood Hero” luncheon: her first award was Volunteer in the Communities - Individual; and also Volunteer of the Quarter for USAOTC.

She regularly volunteers for her unit's Family Readiness Group, the Copperas Cove Soup Kitchen, Copperas Cove United Pentecostal Church, Directorate of Public Works-Environmental Team, and the Florence Independent School District under the Fort Hood Adopt-A-School Program.

Source: USAOTC PublicAffairs, February 7, 2018